eazy peazy downsizing

Recreating the lifestyle you desire through compassionate downsizing and relocating.

Eazy Peazy Downsizing is a company that helps clients transition to a better quality of life and gain freedom from worry and materials they no longer want. We assist homeowners in moving from their current home to a new one or with aging in place. The process may include downsizing of contents and storage, setting up a new location, and preparing the house for sale.

Eazy Peazy Downsizing serves the Edmonton area.

Eazy Peazy Downsizing takes a compassionate approach with clients when preparing their house for sale or setting up their new home. We specialize in empowering homeowners and helping them regain a sense of independence and control.

We know that every object in a home has a story; Eazy Peazy Downsizing honours these stories and possessions and motivates clients to reduce unwanted items. We take a sustainable approach, offering clients a chance to reduce waste, donate or transfer to family members, whenever possible.

You have raised your families and contributed to society and you deserve to live happy and in a place of comfort. Eazy Peazy Downsizing can help with this life transition.

Hi, I am Nicole. I am the founder and CEO of Eazy Peazy Downsizing.

In 2011, my dad needed to downsize and move after living 35 years in our family home and having had a stroke. A company such as Eazy Peazy Downsizing would have been a great service.

I get satisfaction from making people happy. I'm a creative visionary that will help you develop a plan for your home and make it happen.

I am a Professional Home Economist and Trained Professional Organizer. I am Interested in working with you so that you live life to the fullest.

Fun fact: - I'm passionate about my business and love spending time with my husband, family, friends and my dog.

Hi. My name is Nancy and as a Move Manager, I am passionate about organizing your downsizing needs and making the transition to your new home as gentle as possible.

I am a very calm, dependable person with a good listening ear, who really enjoys coordinating and problem-solving.

It would be my pleasure to work together with you or your loved one to customize an efficient and respectful plan of action.

Eazy Peazy Downsizing was established exactly for this reason because we care about our clients and being an advocate for them.

*Quirky fact - I love to read cook*books and try fresh, new recipes weekly!

Testimonial

"Having Eazy Peazy Downsizing help me move from one location to the other has been the most rewarding experience I ever had. Nicole helped me wherever and with whatever she could. Many of the things she did went beyond the scope of what I would expect her to do. I would have never been able to do what we did without Nicole and Nancy's help. Those ladies went beyond my expectations. I recommend Nicole and her company, Eazy Peazy Downsizing. If you would like to talk to me directly, please have Nicole provide you with my contact information. It would be my pleasure. ".
